All currently enrolled 4-H and FFA members (8-18) are welcome to show with the exception of Cloverbud members. Douglas County 4-H Council will not be liable for damages, theft or injury which may occur to the contestant and/or animal during the show. All judge's decisions are final. Stalls are available for sheep and goats only at $10/stall. All bedding must be provided by the exhibitor. The management reserves the right to add, drop, or combine classes. All market animals will be divided by weight. Douglas County 4-H Council Show Management reserves the right to expel any participant and or people associated with the participant in regard to any form of disrespect, unacceptable behavior, or unethical practices. Once the species show begins, you will be called three times to arrive to the show ring for each of your classes. Unless a response is given within that time you will forfeit all eligibility for that class. We will not hold classes. There will be no electricity available for beef show. Generators will be allowed. We reserve the right to modify awards and premiums depending on entries in classes.

By entering, I agree to abide by the Colorado 4-H Code of Conduct and all show rules. I am a 4-H/FFA member in good standing.
